

Dear Friend,

We're ready to go.

After a victorious year electing progressives in Spokane, Bellevue, Seattle, Whatcom County, Tacoma, Yakima, and Vancouver, we're excited about the opportunity to build a more progressive Washington in 2016.

We believe next year presents a remarkable opportunity to move our state forward. From closing corporate tax loopholes and fighting climate change to improving the lives of working people and reducing gun violence, the opportunities for progress in 2016 are incredible.

While we eagerly anticipate the coming year, we know our opponents will not go quietly into the night. Greedy corporations and wealthy conservatives are already plotting about how to protect their special tax loopholes, take away women's rights, exploit workers, and pollute our air and water. Even worse, Tim Eyman has already filed another disastrous anti-tax initiative for 2016.

Next year is full of opportunities, but we need to build a foundation now to scale up our campaigns and win in 2016. We crunched the numbers and we need to sign up 28 new Fuse Powersource monthly donors by January 1 to hit the ground running in 2016. If we fall short, we'll be playing catch up to conservatives during this decisive year. Will you join us?

Fuse started eight years ago with lofty ambitions for building a more progressive Washington. Working with you, we've grown to a dedicated staff of 13 with organizers and local volunteer councils across Washington.

Part of our success is never forgetting that our strength comes from members like you. As a member-driven organization, we look to you for input and direction. Based on your feedback in our recent member survey, here's our plan for 2016.

- If you give, we will work to reform our state's regressive and unjust tax system.
- If you give, we will fight climate change and protect our environment for future generations.
- If you give, we will work to raise wages and ensure all workers can earn sick leave.
- If you give, we will hold the Senate Republicans accountable for stalling progress.
- If you give, we will work to address institutional racism in our justice system, schools, and economy.
- If you give, we will work to reduce gun violence in our communities.
- If you give, we will protect funding for education, health care, and critical services.
- If you give, we will work to ensure women can make their own private medical decisions.
- If you give, we will give you a stronger voice in Washington state politics.

Our goals are ambitious and we need your help to accomplish them in 2016. We need to recruit 28 new Powersource members by January 1 to hit the ground running in 2016. Will you help us build a movement for progressive change?
