

We did important work last legislative session, but I'm not satisfied. There's more work to do.

We have to dream big -- on education, healthcare, infrastructure, our environment -- and so much more.

And we have to fight hard and work hard to reach those big goals. And we have to stand strong.

I took a stand when the legislature failed to end session with a budget and called a special session. It was important to get a budget passed, but we lost 109 fundraising days, and there's no other way to put it: We're behind. And we desperately need to make up for that lost fundraising time.

I'm asking you now, because I know you've been there for me before. Will you make sure our campaign has the resources to stand strong and the grassroots strength to win in November? Please contribute today.

Thank you for standing strong with me.

Very truly yours,
