An individual debtor engaged in business as a sole proprietor, partner, family farmer, or self-employed professional, should provide the information requested on this statement concerning all such activities as well as the individual's personal affairs.

Questions 1 - 18 are to be completed by all debtors. Debtors that are or have been in business, as defined below, also must complete Questions 19 - 25. If the answer to an applicable question is "None," mark the box labeled "None." If additional space is needed for the answer to any question, use and attach a separate sheet properly identified with the case name, case number (if known), and the number of the question.

Filing of Chapter 7 Bankruptcy Case	A bankruptcy case under chapter 7 of the Bankruptcy Code (title 11, United States Code) has been filed in this court by or against the debtor(s) listed on the front side, and an order for relief has been entered.
Creditors May Not Take Certain Actions	Prohibited collection actions are listed in Bankruptcy Code §362. Common examples of prohibited actions include contacting the debtor by telephone, mail or otherwise to demand repayment; taking actions to collect money or obtain property from the debtor; repossessing the debtor's property; starting or continuing lawsuits or foreclosures; and garnishing or deducting from the debtor's wages. There are also special rules that protect certain community property owned by the debtor's spouse, even if the spouse did not file a bankruptcy case. A creditor who violates a discharge order can be required to pay damages and attorney's fees to the debtor.
Meeting of Creditors	A meeting of creditors is scheduled for the date, time and location listed on the front side. The debtor (both spouses in a joint case) must be present at the meeting to be questioned under oath by the trustee and by creditors. Creditors are welcome to attend, but are not required to do so. The meeting may be continued and concluded at a later date without further notice.
Do Not File a Proof of Claim at This Time	There does not appear to be any property available to the trustee to pay creditors. You therefore should not file a proof of claim at this time. If it later appears that assets are available to pay creditors, you will be sent another notice telling you that you may file a proof of claim, and telling you the deadline for filing your proof of claim.
Discharge of Debts	The debtor is seeking a discharge of most debts, which may include your debt. A discharge means that you may never try to collect the debt from the debtor. If you believe that the debtor is not entitled to receive a discharge under Bankruptcy Code §727(a) or that a debt owed to you is not dischargeable under Bankruptcy Code §523(a)(2), (4), (6), or (15), you must start a lawsuit by filing a complaint in the bankruptcy clerk's office by the "Deadline to File a Complaint Objecting to Discharge of the Debtor or to Determine Dischargeability of Certain Debts" listed on the front side. The bankruptcy clerk's office must receive the complaint and the required filing fee by that deadline.
Exempt Property	The debtor is permitted by law to keep certain property as exempt. Exempt property will not be sold and distributed to creditors. The debtor must file a list of all property claimed as exempt. You may inspect that list at the bankruptcy clerk's office. If you believe that an exemption claimed by the debtor is not authorized by law, you may file an objection to that exemption. The bankruptcy clerk's office must receive the objection by the Deadline to Object to Exemptions listed on the front side. At this time, it appears there are no non-exempt assets that will result in payment to creditors.
Bankruptcy Clerk's Office	Any paper that you file in this bankruptcy case should be filed at the bankruptcy clerk's office at the address listed on the front side. You may inspect all papers filed, including the list of the debtor's property and debts and the list of property claimed as exempt, at the bankruptcy clerk's office.
Legal Advice	The staff of the bankruptcy clerk's office cannot give legal advice. You may want to consult an attorney to protect your rights.
Notice Re: Dismissal	If the debtor, or joint debtor, fails to file required schedules, states of lists within 15 days from the date the petition was filed, the U.S. Trustee will apply for and ex parte order of dismissal in the fifth day after the deadline passes. If the debtor, or joint debtor, fails to appear at the meeting of creditors, the U.S. Trustee will apply ex parte order of dismissal five days after the date scheduled for the meeting of creditors, or the date of any rescheduled or continued meeting. This is the only notice you will receive of the U.S. Trustee's motion to dismiss the case. If you wish to oppose the dismissal, you must file a written objection within five days after the applicable deadline passes (i.e. 15-day deadline or date of meeting of creditors).
Appointment of Trustee	Pursuant to Bankruptcy Code §701 and §322 and Rule 2008 Fed.R.Bankr.P., Russell D. Garrett is appointed trustee of the estate of the above named debtor to serve under the trustee's blanket bond. The appointment is made effective the date of this notice. Unless the trustee notifies the U.S., Trustee and the Court in writing of rejection of the appointment within five (5) days of receipt of this notice, the trustee shall be deemed to have accepted the appointment. Unless creditors elect another trustee at the meeting of creditors, the interim trustee appointed herein will serve as the trustee. Mark H. Weber, Assistant U.S. Trustee

EXPLANATION OF BANKRUPTCY DISCHARGE
IN A CHAPTER 7 CASE

This court order grants a discharge to the person named as the debtor. It is not a dismissal of the case and it does not determine how much money, if any, the trustee will pay to creditors.

Collection of Discharged Debts Prohibited

The discharge prohibits any attempt to collect from the debtor a debt that has been discharged. For example, a creditor is not permitted to contact a debtor by mail, phone, or otherwise, to file or continue a lawsuit, to attach wages or other property, or to take any other action to collect a discharged debt from the debtor. [In a case involving community property:] [There are also special rules that protect certain community property owned by the debtor's spouse, even if that spouse did not file a bankruptcy case.] A creditor who violates this order can be required to pay damages and attorney's fees to the debtor.

However, a creditor may have the right to enforce a valid lien, such as a mortgage or security interest, against the debtor's property after the bankruptcy, if that lien was not avoided or eliminated in the bankruptcy case. Also, a debtor may voluntarily pay any debt that has been discharged.

Debts That are Discharged

The chapter 7 discharge order eliminates a debtor's legal obligation to pay a debt that is discharged. Most, but not all, types of debts are discharged if the debt existed on the date the bankruptcy case was filed. (If this case was begun under a different chapter of the Bankruptcy Code and converted to chapter 7, the discharge applies to debts owed when the bankruptcy case was converted.)

Debts That are Not Discharged

Some of the common types of debts which are not discharged in a chapter 7 bankruptcy case are.

- a. Debts for most taxes;
- b. Debts that are in the nature of alimony, maintenance, or support;
- c. Debts for most student loans;
- d. Debts for most fines, penalties, forfeitures, or criminal restitution obligations;
- e. Debts for personal injuries or death caused by the debtor's operation of a motor vehicle while intoxicated;
- f. Some debts which were not properly listed by the debtor;
- g. Debts that the bankruptcy court specifically has decided or will decide in this bankruptcy case are not discharged;
- h. Debts for which the debtor has given up the discharge protections by signing a reaffirmation agreement in compliance with the Bankruptcy Code requirements for reaffirmation of debts.

This information is only a general summary of the bankruptcy discharge. There are exceptions to these general rules. Because the law is complicated, you may want to consult an attorney to determine the exact effect of the discharge in this case.

In re:

ORANGE, Donald and Mary,
Debtors.

CHAPTER 7 TRUSTEE'S MOTION
FOR APPROVAL TO TURN OVER
FUNDS TO DEBTORS IF NO PROOFS
OF CLAIM ARE FILED ON OR BEFORE JANUARY 15, 2004

MOTION

The Chapter 7 Trustee requests an Order from the Court authorizing the Trustee to close the estate and abandon all assets back to the Debtor in the event that no claims are filed on or before January 15, 2004.

The Trustee collected over $64,000 shortly after the First Meeting of Creditors in the case. A number of proofs of claims were filed, but the Debtor objected to the claims filed. None of the claimants filed responses to the Debtor's objections to their claims and, as a result, all of the proofs of claims originally filed have been denied. Nevertheless, most of the creditors who are entitled to file claims in this case have not filed claims with the court and the Trustee still retains over $64,000 to pay creditors whose claims are allowed. The Trustee requests an order that if no claims are filed by December 5, 2003, the Trustee may file a No Distribution Report and abandon the $64,000 back to the Debtors. Alternatively, allowed claims that are filed on or before December 5, 2003 will be paid according to the provisions of the United States Bankruptcy Code.

1 I. CONCLUSION

2 Wherefore, the Trustee requests the Court to enter an Order that all claims filed after
3 January 15, 2004 are barred from receiving any payment and authorizing the Trustee to file a
4 No Distribution Report and to submit an affidavit and order abandoning the remaining assets
5 to the Debtors in the event that no claims are so filed. In the event that claims are filed, the 6 Trustee will administer the assets in the estate for the benefit of creditors.

AFFIDAVIT OF RUSSELL D. GARRETT

14 STATE OF WASHINGTON)
15 County of Clark) ss.

I, Russell D. Garrett, being first duly sworn upon oath, depose and state as follows:

16 1) I have on hand over $64,000 that I recovered from the Debtor in the Debtor's
17 bank accounts post-petition. On or around May 2002, a claims bar date notice was mailed to 18 each of the creditors listed on the mailing matrix. A number of creditors filed proofs of 19 claim. The Debtor objected to each of those claims. No responses were filed. As a 20 consequence of the lack of claimant response, the Debtor obtained ordered denying each of 21 the claims filed in this case.

22 2) As part of my investigation, I inquired about the nature and extent of the 23 creditors, their claims and their effective addresses for each of the creditors. It appears that 24 many of the creditors may have old addresses and may or may not have received notices of 25 the claims bar date. In addition, the Debtor has listed many corporate, but not personal,
26

1 obligations on Schedule F. Creditors looking at the mailing matrix may have been led to
2 believe that there was not a huge amount of unsecured debt in the case. This huge amount of 3 unsecured debt may have dissuaded creditors from filing proofs of claim. Inasmuch as the 4 Debtor is taking the position that the schedules include corporate but not personal debts and
5 that the Debtor is not obligated for any of the corporate obligations, then the schedules are 6 seriously misleading to the creditors. It is, therefore, appropriate for the Court to allow
7 creditors another opportunity to file proofs of claim and provide the creditors with notices
8 that assets are on hand and can be used to pay allowable claims.
