

NICK BROWN

FOR ATTORNEY GENERAL (D)

██████████ the role of Attorney General has never been more important than now as the climate crisis unfolds.

We only need to step outside to see it — or rather, feel it. In Washington, we don't always get a lot of sun, and this summer many of us have been enjoying the break from overcast days.

However, the unusually high temperatures and smoky skies that often accompany the sunshine have made it all too clear that the climate crisis isn't around the corner — it's here.

As Attorney General, Nick won't take this threat to our livelihoods, health and environment lightly. During his time as the U.S. Attorney for Western Washington, he championed environmental justice — and he'll bring that experience to the Office of the Attorney General.

August may be coming to a close, but we're just getting started in elevating Nick's vision for a greener, more prosperous Washington. That's why we set an ambitious end-of-month fundraising goal, and we need grassroots supporters like you to help get us there.

So ██████████ can we count on you to chip in whatever you can before August 31st?
