

Last month, we received 5,987 contributions to our campaign. Thank you to everyone who stepped up.

Unfortunately, we came up short of our ambitious fundraising goal by just $38,000.

This is a big deal. Right now, with less than 6 weeks until voters receive their ballots, we need to reach as many Washington voters as we can, as many times as possible.

Coming up short of our goals forces us to make tough decisions about which voters to contact, and how we contact them. That hurts our chances of winning this election.

Please, this is urgent. We need to make up this fundraising gap ASAP to get back on track and start June strong.

You can help us close the gap right now by donating \$5 or anything you can today. Can I count on you?

I am the only candidate who does not accept donations from corporations or corporate PACs. I am counting on individuals like you to fuel this campaign.

Thanks for your support,

— Bob
